Introduction to the day

All Saints celebrates the baptized people of God, living and dead, who are the body of Christ. As November heralds the dying of the landscape in many northern regions, the readings and liturgy call us to remember all who have died in Christ and whose baptism is complete. At the Lord's table we gather with the faithful of every time and place, trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

TIME OF REMEMBRANCE

On All Saints Sunday, we thank God for all the baptized, both the famous and the forgotten, both those who lived in the past and those around us today. We come to worship, with the faithful of every time and place, to gather at Jesus' feet and to receive his words of blessing trusting that the promises of God will be fulfilled and that all tears will be wiped away in the new Jerusalem.

We remember, O God...The countless saints of history who have blazed a trail of courage through time,
We remember, O God... The tender touch of loved ones, the example of heroes, the healing words of comforters, the remarkable acts of fearless ones.

We remember, O God... The gentle strength of grandmothers, the loyalty of friends, the kindness of strangers, the joy of children, the sacrifice of parents.

We remember, O God...The supreme love of Jesus, the blessing of his Spirit, the reminder of his words, the sharing of his suffering, the glory of his resurrection.

We remember, O God those saints close to our hearts in this place who have gone to abide with you in the last year: Larry Snyder, Mark Snyder, Karl Runser, Lou Childress...

(You are invited to come forward and light a candle in memory of loved ones)

We remember in every time and place the saints of God who have shown us the Lord. Since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us worship God with Joy!

(The Time of Remembrance concludes with vs. 4 of Shall We Gather at the River)

GREETING

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

And also with you.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray.

Almighty God, you have knit your people together in one communion in the mystical body of your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Grant us grace to follow your blessed saints in lives of faith and commitment, and to know the inexpressible joys you have prepared for those who love you, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

TIME WITH CHILDREN

FIRST READING: Revelation 7:9-17

A reading from Revelation.

<sup>9</sup>After this I looked, and there was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, from all tribes and peoples and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, robed in white, with palm branches in their hands. <sup>10</sup>They cried out in a loud voice, saying,

“Salvation belongs to our God who is seated on the throne, and to the Lamb!”

<sup>11</sup>And all the angels stood around the throne and around the elders and the four living creatures, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, <sup>12</sup>singing,

“Amen! Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanksgiving and honor and power and might be to our God forever and ever! Amen.”

<sup>13</sup>Then one of the elders addressed me, saying, "Who are these, robed in white, and where have they come from?" <sup>14</sup>I said to him, "Sir, you are the one that knows." Then he said to me, "These are they who have come out of the great ordeal; they have washed their robes and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

<sup>15</sup>For this reason they are before the throne of God,
and worship him day and night within his temple,
and the one who is seated on the throne will shelter them.

<sup>16</sup>They will hunger no more, and thirst no more;
the sun will not strike them,
nor any scorching heat;

<sup>17</sup>for the Lamb at the center of the throne will be their shepherd,
and he will guide them to springs of the water of life,
and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING: 1 John 3:1-3

A reading from 1 John.

<sup>1</sup>See what love the Father has given us, that we should be called children of God; and that is what we are. The reason the world does not know us is that it did not know him. <sup>2</sup>Beloved, we are God's children now; what we will be has not yet been revealed. What we do know is this: when he is revealed, we will be like him, for we will see him as he is. <sup>3</sup>And all who have this hope in him purify themselves, just as he is pure.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

PRAYERS OF INTERCESSION

Let us pray for the church, the world, and all people according to their needs.

Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, for they will be filled. Your loving grace is poured out even though we are undeserving. We all have sinned and pray for forgiveness. Teach us to turn away from judging people by categories and fearing those who are different. Help us to appreciate the complexity and diversity of everyone since we are all Your children and made in Your image. Fill us with the power of the Holy Spirit to listen to others, forgive them, love them, and share the Gospel with them. Send us out to reflect our renewed relationship with you by dying to sin, living in God, and increasing our faith. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God. We pray for wholeness throughout our broken and violent world. Where there is revenge, bring reconciliation. Where there is hatred, spread your love. Where there is terror, bring safety and healing. Bestow wisdom on all leaders to be peacemakers. We pray you will protect military personnel, sustain veterans, comfort military families, and keep safe all refugees. Bring relief to those who have been affected by disasters. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Blessed are the pure in heart, for they will see God. We are deeply grateful for the saints living now and in the past and for the many blessings in our lives. We pray for the insight to become righteous, pure, and meek. May we learn to share our abundance and turn from our greed. Lead us to be careful stewards of your beautiful world, teaching us to care for everything in nature and to use the Earth's resources wisely. We also rejoice with those who are celebrating anniversaries, birthdays, and other joyous occasions. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Blessed are the meek, for they will inherit the earth. We pray for healing for anyone who is ill in mind, body, or spirit. Restore to wholeness those who are struggling with addictions. Strengthen all who deal with long-term diagnoses, such as cancer, dementia, and mental health issues. Bless our shut-ins and help us bring them joy and companionship. Grant wisdom and skill to all medical personnel, researchers, and caregivers so they may provide the best care. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

O God of mercy, listen now as we offer other prayers, either silently or aloud..... Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted. We pray for those to whom death draws near. Rest your peace, comfort, and hope on all grieving family and friends. Remind us all of the promise of eternal life with you. Lord in your mercy, hear our prayer.

Into your hands we commend all for whom we pray, trusting in your mercy, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.

And also with you.
Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to the Lord.
Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give our thanks and praise.

THANKSGIVING AT THE TABLE

It is indeed right and good that we should everywhere and always offer thanks and praise to you, holy God, mighty and immortal, through Jesus Christ our Lord, who on this day broke the bonds of death, opening to us the way of everlasting life and giving us a foretaste of the feast to come.

In the night in which he was betrayed, our Lord Jesus took bread, and gave thanks; broke it, and gave it to his disciples, saying: Take and eat; this is my body, given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me.

Again, after supper, he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it for all to drink, saying: This cup is the new covenant in my blood, shed for you and for all people for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me.

LORD'S PRAYER

Lord, remember us in your kingdom and teach us to pray.

Our Father in heaven,
    hallowed be your name,
    your kingdom come,
    your will be done,
        on earth as in heaven.

Give us today our daily bread.

Forgive us our sins
    as we forgive those who sin against us.

Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil.

For the kingdom, the power,
    and the glory are yours,
    now and forever. Amen.
